Fishing

The thought of spending a day out on the Arabian Sea will have you sleepless in anticipation. Oman is home to some of the best fishing in the world and even the most inexperienced person can enjoy the time spent in search of the big one. With experienced skippers and friendly crew, soft drinks and sandwiches as well as an onboard toilet you will feel right at home. You are sure to catch fish all year round but the best time of the year is February-April.

Species to be found in the waters of Oman include the likes of Tuna, Derado, Kawakawa, Blue Fish, Black fin Barracuda and many more.
